CONANT-BALL CAPE-COD FURNITURE

NEITHER time nor wear can lessen the beauty and soundness of the Conant-Ball Cape Cod furniture made of Solid Rock Maple. It is designed and made with the understanding that it must merit the approval of style conscious people and be heirloom furniture for future generations. These are styles that reflect the spirit of Early American days and anticipate the sophistication of today. All have the picturesque characteristics of the Cape Cod country which inspired them and are as finely made as though they had been done by hand. The Cape Cod Maple consists of a large line of related furniture which offers unlimited opportunity for individual selection.

Conant-Ball are pioneers and leaders in the reproduction of Early American furniture and take pride in the choice woods, sound construction and fine finish of this furniture.

All furniture shown in this catalogue is made of:
